

IDS Executive Compensation Review

May 2007

In brief
	Inflation puts pressure on pay awards; FRC reviews Combined Code; Persimmon boosts board salaries and cuts bonuses; management consultancies recruit more graduates; new rates for occupational physicians	2
Monitor
	Budget 2007: a HR perspective	4
	As tax policy can have a major influence on reward practice, we look at the implications of the latest Budget for HR specialists
	Insider views on executive pay	8
	Inbucon provides an insight into the thinking of some of the key players involved in deciding boardroom pay policy
In practice
	Low pay rises for doctors and medical professionals	9
	An outline of the latest salary recommendations for NHS doctors, dentists, nurses and allied medical professionals
Survey round-up
	National management salaries: RE/CMI	12
	Executive pay in Europe: Inbucon	13
	NHS trust senior executives: NHS Partners	14
	Management rewards: Croner Reward	15
Job market
	Housing association directors' remuneration	16
	Our second survey of the remuneration of housing association directors based on 85 annual accounts
Speaker's corner
	Should top pay be monitored by a high pay commission?	21
	Nick Isles of The Work Foundation argues that current boardroom remuneration trends should be seen as a market failure and suggests a high pay commission could be the way forward
	Stats and facts	24