

IDS Executive Compensation Review

April 2008

In brief
HSBC responds to shareholder activism; PIRC links executive pay with corporate responsibility; managers work 40 days overtime a year; company cars still 'essential recruitment tool'; computer staff managers in demand	2
Monitor
Budget 2008: a HR perspective	4
Our annual review of the HR implications of the Budget outlines the tax measures affecting employee pay and benefits
Graduate recruitment plans holding up	6
Drawing on our own and other research we gauge the temperature of the graduate recruitment market
Latest trends in reward management	8
A summary of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development's (CIPD) latest survey of reward management practice
In practice
Business performance cuts executive pay at BP	12
Critics of executive remuneration often point to examples of bonus and incentive schemes paying out in the face of poor business results, but BP's latest accounts explain why its directors did not receive their long-term incentive awards
Survey round-up
Executive compensation: Inbucon	15
NHS top pay: Capita Health Service Partners	16
Marketing professionals' pay: Marketing Week and Ball and Hoolahan	17
Job market
Retail managers	18
We take a look at the job market for retail managers, analysing current trends and salary levels as well as drawing on the views of recruitment consultants
Speaker's corner
Heuristics, biases and long-term incentive plans	21
Sandy Pepper, partner at PricewaterhouseCoopers, explains how psychology can provide an insight into directors' remuneration
Stats & facts	24